

Program: Doctoral Academic Studies
Course title: SERBIAN PHILOSOPHY OF LAW
Teachers: Dr. Jasminka Hasanbegović, Full Professor
Course status: optional
Number of ECTS: 10
Requirements: None
Aims of the course: Introduction to the main currents, ideas and authors in Serbian legal philosophy from its beginning to the end of the XX century
Course result: Knowledge about the main currents, ideas and values of the Serbian tradition in legal philosophy.
Course content: 1. Jovan Sterija Popović – Natural law; 2. Dimitrije Matić – A brief overview of the historical development of the principles of law, morality and the state, Principles of the law of reason; 3. Rajko Lešjanin – Main principles and basic understandings of human freedom and law; 4. Gligorije Geršić – Theory on the retroactive force of law; Encyclopedia of law; 5. Živojin M. Perić – An overview of the evolutionistic school of law, About the language and law, Unsolvable problem in law; 6. Živan Spasojević – Analogy and interpretation; 7. Toma Živanović – System of synthetic legal philosophy; Teodor Taranovski – Encyclopedia of law; 9. Evgenije Spektorski – Hugo Grotius as a philosopher, Subjectivism and objectivism in legal theory; 10. Đorđe Tasić – Positive law as a value and natural law, Sources of positive Law, The problem of peace in philosophy of law, Justice, common good and social peace, On natural or ideal law, Modern relativism and the problem of natural law, Justice and order as legal principles; 11. Božidar S. Marković – An inquiry about the relations of the concept of law and the development of positive private law, Fairness as a mode of thinking and as legal experience, Fairness and the legal order, Fairness as a source of law; 12. Radomir D. Lukić – The binding force of the legal norm and the problem of objective law, On the concept of sociology of law; 13. Mihailo Đurić
Literature: Jasminka Hasanbegović, 20th-Century Philosophy of Law and General Theory of Law in Serbia , in: Enrico Pattaro, Corrado Roversi (eds.), Legal Philosophy in the Twentieth Century: The Civil Law World , Vol. 12 of “A Treatise of Legal Philosophy and General Jurisprudence”, Springer Publishing, 2016, pp. 653-662. Additional literature is available in Serbian only.
Number of lectures – active classes	Theoretical classes: 15	Practical classes: None
Instruction method: Lectures
Grading system (maximum number of points 100)
Pre-exam obligations	points	Final Exam	points
Activities during lectures	20	Oral exam	60
Seminar classes	20		