

Program: Doctoral Academic Studies –
Course title: EU CIVIL PROCEDURE
Teachers: prof. dr Aleksandar Jakšić, prof. dr Vladimir Pavić, prof. dr Nikola Bodiroga
Course status: mandatory for civil law area- module III
Number of ECTS: 10
Requirements: /
Aims of the course: Acquiring wide knowledge on the postulates of EU law.
Course result: Candidate should obtain such a level of knowledge and skill which would enable him or her to independently critically reflect on the proceedings in the EU law, to acquire the ability to analyse harmonisation of the national law with the EU procedural law and to obtain ability to independently research in this field.
Course content: I Sources of the EU procedural law, Conventions, Statute of the Court of justice of the European Union II Organization of courts in the EU III Cooperation of the courts of the EU with the national courts IV Enforcement of the acquis communautaire V Actions proscribed by the EC Treaty: action for annulment, action for failure to act, liability claim VI Provisional measures in the proceedings before the EU courts
Literature: Obligatory: Koen Lenaerts/Dirk Arts/Ignace Maselis, Procedural Law of European Union, London, Sweet and Maxwell, 2006. Wyatt and Dashwood's, European Union Law, 6 th edition, Oxford, 2011. Additional: Additional literature will be determined by teacher and candidate depending on the interests of the candidate
Number of lectures – active classes	Theoretical classes: 75	Practical classes :
Instruction method: lectures, consultations.
Grading system (maximum number of points 100)
Pre-exam obligations	Points	Final Exam	Points 70
Activities during lectures	30		70
Activities during practical classes
Tests
Seminar classes			