

Program: Master Academic Studies
Course title: HUMAN RIGHTS LAW
Teachers: Prof. Dr. Vladan Joncic, Prof. Dr. Ivana Krstic, Assistant Prof. Dr. Bojana Cuckovic
Course status: Optional -International Law module
Number of ECTS: 10
Requirements: /
Aims of the course: Acquiring knowledge and understanding the creation, development and establishment of basic principles and aims of international law doctrine which regulates the area of human rights; understanding conceptual basis of the doctrine and human rights practice, with theoretical, international and legal solutions and certain specificities of human rights; acquiring general legal education and development of critical legal reasoning; examination of the nature of law, legal doctrine and basic ideas, principles and institutions of international human rights law; understanding the role of the legislature in the development of human rights; understanding relationship between domestic and international law related to human rights; analyzing the influence of other factors on human rights law; enabling the use of comparative law methods and acquiring advanced understanding of other legal systems in this area; understanding the European and other legal traditions in the field of human rights and harmonization of Serbian law with aforementioned legal systems.
Course result: Students should acquire the level of knowledge and skills sufficient for independent critical analysis of a wide spectrum of issues within human rights and for independent original research with the use of adequate literature and methodology.
Course content: Profound analysis and study of: Notion and subject matter of human rights; evolution of human rights, understanding legal norms in the field of human rights; human rights in domestic law; international human rights; protection of human rights in times of peace; protection of human rights in extraordinary circumstances (humanitarian law); sources of international human rights law; implementation of human rights; types of supervision; supervision by international organizations in establishing, implementing and protecting human rights; sanctions for violations of human rights; fundamental human rights and freedoms; individual and collective rights; general terms of enjoyment of human rights; limitations of human rights.
Literature: Mandatory: Paunović, M., Krivokapić, B., Krstić, I., International Human Rights , Belgrade, 2017, Krstic, I., Marinkovic, T., European Human Rights Law , Council of Europe, Belgrade, 2016. Optional/Supplementary: Shelton, D., Remedies in International Human Rights Law , Oxford, 2006; Tomuschat, C., Human Rights: between Idealism and Realism , Oxford, 2006; Burgental, T., International Human Rights in a nutshell , Belgrade, 1997.
Number of lectures – active classes	Theoretical classes: 15	Practical classes :
Instruction method: lectures, consultations
Grading system (maximum number of points 100)
Pre-exam obligations	points	Final Exam	points
Activities during lectures	20	Written Assessment

Activities during practical classes		Oral Exam	60
Tests
Seminar classes	20		