

Program: Master Academic Studies –
Course title: PARLIAMENTARY LAW
Teachers: Vladan Petrov, Ph.D. full-time professor, e-mail: vpetrov@ius.bg.ac.rs
Course status: optional, Public Law Module, Constitutional Law Sub-module
Number of ECTS: 10
Requirements: /
Aims of the course: The course shall enable students to deepen their knowledge of parliamentary law as well to prepare them for autonomous analysis of parliamentary institutions and processes, and to acquire the knowledge of Serbian parliamentary practice as well as comparative parliamentary law.
Course result: Applying acquired knowledge as well as using the dogmatic and comparative law methods which shall result with an original master thesis. The emphasis of the course is on thorough and practical research of the peculiar topic of parliamentary law.
Course content: The course shall provide more detailed analysis of parliamentary law institutes, its notion, composition, workings, functions, the relationship between parliament and the other political institutions, and especially parliamentary proceedings in their normative and practical aspects.
Literature: Low Sidney, British Constitution , 1928. Brazier Rodney, Constitutional practice , Oxford, 2001. Avril Pierre, Quicqel Jean, Droit parlementaire , Paris, 2004. Laporte Jean, Toulard Marie, Droit parlementaire , Paris, 1986.
Number of lectures – active classes	Theoretical classes: 15	Practical classes :
Instruction method: Lectures, consultations;
Grading system (maximum number of points 100)
Pre-exam obligations	points	Final Exam	points
Activities during lectures	20
Activities during practical classes		Oral exam	60
Tests
Seminar classes	20		