

Program: Master Academic Studies –
Course title: ADMINISTRATION AND REGULATORY REFORM
Teachers: Full-time Prof. Dr. Dobrosav Milovanović, bata@ius.bg.ac.rs
Course status: optional – Public Law module, Administrative Law sub-module
Number of ECTS: 10
Requirements: /
Aims of the course: The aim of this course is to enable candidates to broaden and deepen their knowledge on the problem of regulatory reform.
Course result: Candidates should acquire knowledge and skills, which would help them develop a critical approach to complex questions of regulatory reform, as well as to conduct independent research in this area.
Course content:
1. Theoretical issues of the relationship between administration and regulatory reform
1.1. General questions regarding regulation (The notion of regulation; Causes and goals of regulation; Tendencies in the development of regulation) 1.2. General questions concerning the administration (Theoretical concept of the administration; Positive legal concept of the administration; Tendencies in the development of the administration)
1.3. Administration and Regulation (Administration as the creator, Role of the administration in creating, implementing and controlling regulation; Administration as the subject of regulation).
2. The Regulatory System
2.1. General considerations;
2.2. Theories of regulation;
2.3. The administration and other actors of the regulatory system;
2.4. Instruments and techniques of regulation;
2.5. Regulatory processes.
3. The improvement of the regulatory system
3.1. The quality of the regulatory system;
3.1.1. The notion and importance of the quality of regulation;
3.1.2. The criteria concerning quality of regulation.
3.2. The Regulatory Reform;
3.2.1. Elements of the regulatory reform;
3.2.2. Pre-conditions for a successful implementation of regulatory reforms.
3.3. The administrative reform in the regulatory context;
3.3.1. Changes in the administrative environment;
3.3.2. Goals of reforming the role of the administration in regulation;
3.3.3. Principles, methods and pre-conditions of the administrative reform.
Literature:
D. Milovanović, N. Nenadić, V. Todorić, „Survey on the Improvement of the Legislative Process in the Republic of Serbia“, GIZ, Belgrade, 2012; D. Milovanović, „Deregulation and Simplification as Part of the Regulatory Reform“, Legal life , No.10/II, Belgrade, 2008, pp. 559-570; D. Milovanović, „The Public Administration Reform and the Analysis of Regulatory Effects“, Legal life , No. 9/I, Belgrade, 2006; D. Milovanović, „Analysis of Regulatory Effects as a Modern Public Management Technique“, Legal life , 9/2003.
Number of lectures – active classes	Theoretical classes: 15	Practical classes :
Instruction method: Lectures, consultations.
Grading system (maximum number of points 100)
Pre-exam obligations	points	Final Exam	points
Activities during lectures	20	Oral exam	60
Activities during practical classes
Tests
Seminar classes	20		