

Program: Undergraduate Academic Studies
Course title: LAW ON CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
Teachers: Prof. Dr. Milan Škulić, Prof. Dr. Goran Ilić, Ass. Prof. Dr. Vanja Bajović
Course status: mandatory
Number of ECTS: 9
Requirements: Enrolled fifth semester of legal studies
Aims of the Course: Understand and apply general concepts of criminal procedure; understand constitutional limitations on ability of law enforcement to investigate crimes; appreciate the role of professionals in the legal system, including police, judges, prosecutors, and defense counsel; practical work with students would enable them to apply the acquired knowledge in the practice.
Course result: At the end of this course students should gain the following competences: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Sound knowledge of criminal procedure and capability for critical analysis of its rules. - ability to carry out professional activities in judiciary and another institutions that deal with prevention and repression of crimes. - ability to search, analyze and work with legally relevant information by using the juridical, comparative and other specific methods - ability to describe legal problems and situations in the field of criminal proceedings
Course content: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Principles of Criminal Proceedings; 2. Participants in Criminal Proceedings (The Defendant and Defense Council; Prosecutor; Judge, Injured Party) 3. The Rules of Evidence; 4. Pre-Investigation 5. Investigation; 6. Plea-Bargaining; 7. Trial; 8. Judgment 9. Appeal 10. Extraordinary Legal Remedies 11. Summary Proceedings
Literature: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Marty M. and Spencer J. R. (eds.), European Criminal Procedures, Cambridge University Press, 2002 - Bradley, C. M. (ed.), Criminal Procedure- A Worldwide Study, 2nd Ed., USA, 2007 - Z. Stojanovic, Đ. Ignjatovic, V. Bajović, International Encyclopedia of Laws: Criminal Law – Serbia, Kluwer, 2018 - Trechsel, S., Human Rights in Criminal Proceedings, Oxford University Press, 2006
Number of lectures – active classes:		Lectures: 75	Practical classes: 30
Instruction method: Lectures, study groups, moot-courts, consultations
Grading system (maximum number of points 100)
Pre-exam obligations	points	Final exam	points
Activities during lectures	10	Oral exam	50
Activities during practical classes	10	Written exam	10
Study group	10
Tests	10	